HAPPY FISHING - See you at the meeting

A Message from the President

By Mike Hartt

As the peak of the fishing season moves on, reports remain excellent. I understand King of the Club had some great catches as well as the local and long range boats.

Congratulations to all for a very successful Earl Warren Memorial Kids Trip" last month. It was great to see all the happy kids and all you volunteers as well. Any suggestions to make the trip even better for next year are always welcomed.

I'll be going on the Red Rooster five-day trip this time next month and hope to see and fish with a number of our members.

Daily Grill is the location for our August membership meeting Since Lulu's was unable to accommodate us this month, I'm thinking this is a good time to have our "over the hill" meeting for those that have always made the long drive.

Another reminder to those that might be interested in joining our Board. This is a great opportunity to help the club in a more direct way, so please contact Mark or myself to offer your services.

Good fishing!

ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

Submitted by Eric Rogger

◆ IN CASE YOU MISSED IT. . . The California Sportfishing League (CSL) reported that Assembly Bill AB 1387 advanced to the “Appropriations Suspense File” in our State Legislature. This is the legislation that would change the length of our fishing licenses to one year from date of purchase. As reported in Pacific Coast Sportfishing CSL has been quite active in persuing this bill since it would greatly affect angler participation. Let’s hope we can get final word on this ASAP.

◆ CATCH ANY ALBACORE LATELY. . .What used to be a standard productive seasonal fishery for us has been missing. National Fisherman noted that while the “longfins” migrate from North to South Pacific they also alter this pattern periodically. Tagging studies are under way to verify this movement. It appears meanwhile that nine commercial boats that went south caught 4000 lbs. daily during this season (2019) . Landings for West Coast Albacore fell below 2017 results and below the 20 year average during 2018.

◆ READ ABOUT IT IN “TIDE” . . .The good news you can read about in “Tide”, the magazine put out by CCA , concerns the bipartisan report on the bills designed to eliminate drift gill nets. The report by Bill Shedd, among other things the President of AFTCO Mfg. Co. and Chairman of CCA-CAL, tells us that Senate Bill S906 and House Bill HR1979 are moving through Congress. Drift nets have been proven to be very destructive of the ocean environment and will be replaced by deep-set buoy gear. In elaboration, drift gill-nets have been used mainly in efforts to catch swordfish, a very valuable commodity in the seafood market.

◆ THIS IS WHERE POLITICS AND CONSERVATION CLASH! . . .Seems like a late report in the LA Times reports on a controversy between biologists and federal officials in the Department of the Interior, National Marine Fisheries Service and the US Fish & Wildlife Service. If this were not of concern to Californians we would not be reporting this. At issue is the plan to divert more fresh Delta water to farmers in Central California. Increasing water deliveries would endanger chinook salmon, delta smelt and other native species to the edge of extinction according to the biologists. If you are sufficiently interested send me a self addressed envelope and I will forward the entire story.

◆ FINALLY. . .I have a report from Environment America. It concerns the increasing presence of plastics in our environment. Sounds familiar? Remember the stories about the Pacific “Gyre”? “Scientists have found high amounts of microplastics raining down everywhere from the pristine areas of the Pyrenees mountains to remote areas of the Arctic” Enough said – If you are so inclined bring up action@environmentamerica.org

AS USUAL COMMENTS AND WRITTEN CONTRIBUTIONS WILL BE WELCOME... THANKS!

69TH ANNUAL LARRC KIDS' FISHING TRIP

By Fisherman Phil Bell and Richard Stone

On July 15th, LARRC sponsored the 69th anniversary of the annual "At Risk Youth" Kids' fishing Trip out of 22nd Street Landing. It was a lot of effort by many of the Club's members and it was a lot of fun. Seeing the look on a kid's face when they catch their first fish on a rod and reel is priceless.

This year the event has been renamed the "The LARRC Earl Warren Memorial Kids Fishing Trip). Earl was long time, valued, and honored member of the Club. Earl served multiple times as Club President, on the Board of Directors and the LARRC Foundation. He worked tirelessly and with purpose right up until the day of his passing, earlier this year, as active and contributing member. Renaming this event in his honor is well deserved.

We had children from 3 different organizations participate in the event: New Directions, High Desert Child-Adolescent and Family Services as well as Midnight Mission/Harbor Interface Services.

LARRC volunteers joined together on the Native Sun and the Monte Carlo for a great day of fishing. The Boat Captains and their crews did an excellent job cutting bait, untangling lines and helping the Club members and kids to catch fish as well as fileting countless numbers of Sculpins (not an easy fish to clean).

LARRC volunteers arrived early to carry tackle and supplies down to the boats and rig up the rods. When the kids arrived and boarded the boats, LARRC members were there to greet them. There was healthy snacks waiting for them and the kids received a hot lunch from the galley.

When the boats reached the sculpin fishing spot, LARRC anglers were diligent to teach the kids how to fish. The results were outstanding. After a short time, most of them were baiting hooks, dropping down their lines, and catching fish. Limits of Sculpin were caught by many young anglers, who in most instances were fishing for the first time.

Thank you to all the Club members who showed up to be volunteer deck hands. A SPECIAL THANKS goes out to the LARRC members, Steve Simon, Scott Schiffman, John Goss, Donald Goldsobel, Mark Manculich, Marc Monforte, Sophia Huynh, Larry Brown, Phil Bell, Andrew Ratzky, Richard Stone, who took managerial roles and spent many hours in organizing, prepping, securing/transporting all the necessary supplies and gear. Foundation members Joel Steinman & Chas Schoemaker, brought funds to pay for the event and served as deckhands. Also exceptionally noteworthy is member Dave Morgan (Dave 6) who enrolled his Mason's Lodge #307, Santa Monica chapter, to present the LARRC Foundation with a $2,500 check to help fund kids fishing events in the future.

We should all be connected to and proud of the fact that the LA Rod & Reel Club does many such "HIGHER PURPOSE" events like this each year. There are many opportunities to help serve, including the special needs kids event at Hansen Dam, several Veterans, and Youth Mentor trips along with many others Club endeavors to help promote the future of sports fishing. The satisfaction you received when you "step up" to participate in these events is incalculable. You are all urged to find out how you can get involved going forward.

OUTRIDER JULY 8-9, 2019

CALICO BOB CHARTER

The reverse 1-1/2 day trip on the Outrider left 22nd Landing at 11:00 am, with nine passengers looking forward to the adventure promised by chartermaster Calico Bob Selvin. Tackle was being rigged in accordance with the instructions by the captain for fishing at San Clemente Island. While at the bait receiver, Captain Oby received breaking information and called an audible, switching the trip instead to Santa Barbara Island. New instructions were to rig up for fly-lining with 20 to 25 fluorocarbon top shots and 1/0 hooks for the lively sardines that filled the bait tanks.

After making the approximately five hour run in calm waters to the island, we were ready for action. Although they were signs of game fish, none were willing to cooperate. A move to deeper waters allowed the passengers to capture quality reds and other rockfish as the sun went down. A tri-tip and mashed potatoes dinner, with key lime or chocolate mousse pie, capped off a relaxing day on the water, sending all to bed with visions of yellowtail in the morning.

The early predawn hours arrived with eager anglers fishing squid on dropper loop rigs, hoping for yellowtail or white sea bass. With no takers by an hour after sunrise, it was time to enjoy breakfast as the boat looked around for better sign. The next stop resulted in several hookups. Several fish were lost to line breakage on the light line or predation by the marauding sea lions. Persistence paid off for Dave Permut and Chas Schoemaker, with two quality yellowtail evading the protected pinnipeds to hit the deck for the happy anglers.

Norm Weinstock had his morning exercise, being worked by a mystery fish for over 30 minutes. Norm patiently went back and forth along the stern, keeping good form with the rod bent, taking a crank when he could and following his fish. Eventually a giant black sea bass emerged from the depths. Estimated by the crew to weigh between 150 to 175 pounds, it was successfully revived and released.

A move to another rockfish area kept everyone busy with reds, bocaccio, whitefish, sheepshead and other assorted rockfish. Fabio (Bob's trainer and former Mr. LA runner up) had a prize lingcod. With sacks filled, it was time to look around once again.

The Aloha Spirit, Thunderbird and Outrider converged to form a triangle which was circled by a large yellowtail school. The fish were reasonably cooperative with steady action on the fly-lined sardines, although it seemed casualties outnumbered fish on the deck by a good ratio.

Father and son Scott and Mason Cohen had steady action, with 14-year-old Mason showing everyone how it was done with his four yellowtail. The final boat count for yellowtail was 24, with all passengers getting at least one. Others fishing included Dave Morgan (Dave 6), and Cande (Bob's aquarium guy).

Dave Permut and Chas Schoemaker limited, with Dave taking jackpot with his thirty pound plus beauty. Special thanks to Calico Bob for putting together a great group for a great fishing trip.

AUGUST PESCADOR TRIP

By Paul Varenchik

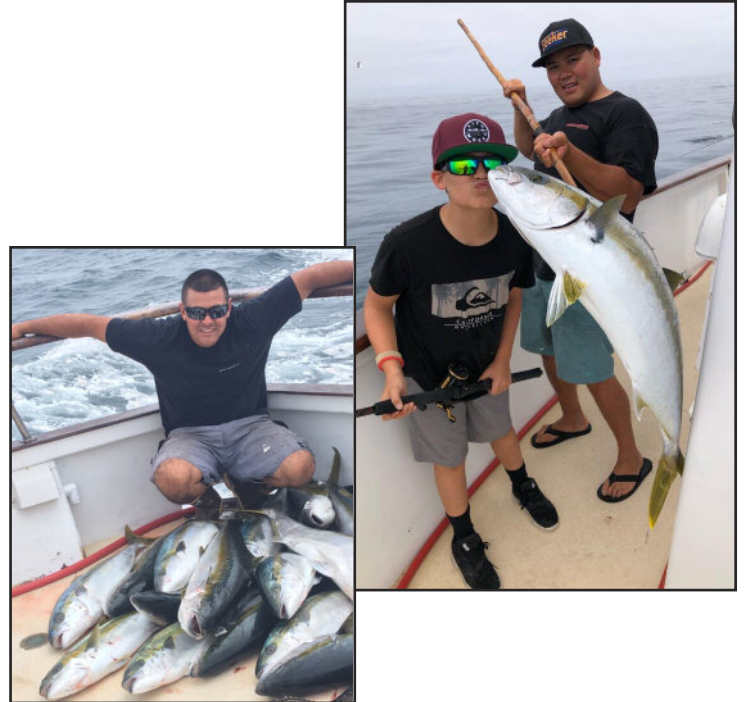

Overnight, July 28/29th, 2019...

With long anticipation, we departed the 22nd St. Landing, on the 50ft. Fishing vessel "Pescador" skippered by Jacob Moreno. Chartermaster Randy Sharon organized everything and it went off like a well oiled machine!

Ten players...Charles Schoemaker, Dave Permut, Michael Dickter, Donald Goldsobel, Steve Digiuseppe, my two sons, Troy and Jonathan Varenchik and my grandson Dylan. It was Dylan's first overnighter. The destination Santa Barbara Island. Species...24 yellowtail, 15 assorted rockfish. Yellows went from 15-30 lbs., and fought hard, 2 on surface iron, Randy and Steve....the rest on 'dines and squid.

My grandson, Dylan, with a little help from his dad, Troy, got 2 yellows! The crew did an outstanding job. The weather was o.k. plenty of good breakfast burritos, burgers and baby back pork ribs!

If you would like to ride and fish the "Pescador", contact Randy Sharon. He has a few openings....tight lines, Pablo!

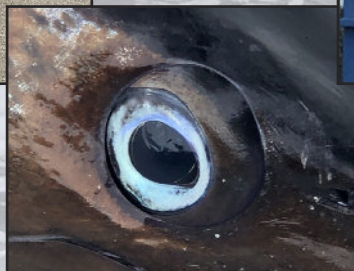

MY FIRST BLUE MARLIN

By Nick Ekdahl

Lori and I celebrated our 20th Wedding Anniversary by going to the Big Island of Hawaii just as we did for our honeymoon! One of the many activities we planned was a private fishing charter for me. Long story short I caught my first Blue Marlin on the Bite Me 1 on a 4-hour morning charter out of Honokohau harbor. It rained like hell on the drive down to the harbor from the Mauna Kea resort but it's Hawai'i so it wasn't going to stop me! I found the boat and met Captain Chad and Deckhand Sandy (Chad's dad) and immediately liked their vibe. Chad got us underway and Sandy gave me the rundown on what we were going to do (troll 5 lines) and what to do once we hooked up. Since I have fished for big game before it was pretty familiar. We trolled for a little over 2 hours and the squalls kept us in the cabin so Sandy and I traded stories about fishing and our experiences with cancer. Like I said I really liked Sandy's vibe. Well wouldn't you know it I was in the head when we hooked up so I rushed back up on deck and followed Sandy's instructions, took the rod, got buckled in and started the fight. Chad and Sandy began debating about what the fish was... Chad thought he saw a bill come through the pattern but as Sandy pointed out it went deep and was acting like an Ahi... either way I didn't care because I was getting my ass kicked! About 45 minutes later the fish came to leader and the debate was over, it was indeed a Blue Marlin! It didn't jump due to the way it was hooked; they called it a "sleeper" and it stayed deep. I asked Sandy why he didn't say anything while I was fighting the fish and he said "You did everything right, I didn't have to yell at you once" with a big grin! I was stoked! Captain Chad had a buyer so the fish came on board and I brought the bill home as a trophy. It weighed roughly 140 lbs. Only need a Black, Striped and White Marlin to finish my Grand Slam! (I caught a 40 lb. Spearfish years ago.)

LA BOCANA TRIP WITH BAJA FISHING CONVOYS AND ORCHID MARTINEZ-GUEVARA

NEW DATES, NEW ... FLY FISHING OPTION

THIS IS SOMETHING YOU JUST MUST DO!

Orchid Martinez-Guevara, of Baja Fishing Convoys has put together a trip for us. She asked me to be the Charter Master and I accepted. Lets make this trip happen!

Dates: October 27- November 1, 2019 (6-Day trip with 4 days of fishing)

Cost $2095 per person. Includes 4 days of fishing 7AM - 3PM. Lodging in new, well appointed, beachfront cabins. Daily continental breakfast, boat lunch. Dinners are at the restaurant. They will prepare your catch! Ceviche, tacos, a la parilla...any way you want it. Your choice of a great menu...not included in the cost, but the cost is very reasonable. Plenty of beer, etc. Last time I was there they made the most fabulous ceviche, fish tacos, lobster, shrimp dinner.. They run a tab for each person.

Fish processing is additional. $2 per pound finished product vacuum sealed and frozen.

Transportation: We will fly out of Tijuana Airport. Park on the U.S. side, walk over the pedestrian (CBX) bridge and check-in. Orchid can assist us in purchasing those CBX passes ahead of time so we don't wait in line. We fly to Guerrero Negro and are driven to La Bocana. For those of you who went to Cedros last year, the trip is on the same plane as the one we took to Cedros. Seats 13 passengers. Our group will be a group of 12. Orchid will accompany us. The drive to La Bocana is about 2.5 hours. This has improved from last year's drive time of 7 hours each way. And not to forget, this new flight out of Tijuana will require NO driving across the border on the way back!

Baggage: Allowance of 3 rods at no additional fee. Weight limit going is 50 pounds free. Returning same basic limit with an allowance of up to a total 70 pounds. Anything over 50 is an additional charge. Pack light.

La Bocana is a co-operative fishing community on the Pacific side of the Baja Peninsula. It is an area frequently fished by the San Diego long range boats. They have in-shore and off-shore fishing. Estuary fishing is also available for those that enjoy fly-fishing or fishing for smaller species. There are Gulf and Broom Tail Grouper. Great fish. Other fish to catch are wahoo, tuna, dorado, yellowtail, sierra, bonito, sheeps head, white sea bass, black sea bass, silver curvina, spot-ties, triggerfish, even bottom fish! Calico fishing here is among the best there is in the Baja Peninsula! Some guys have been known to catch over 18 different species at La Bocana.

I am taking deposits starting July 1. If you have question, you can call me, Donald Goldsobel or text (818) 970-4578. Donald@dgoldsobel.com

BIG BLUE ARE GETTING SMARTER & A TOAST TO JAN HOWARD

By Cathy Needleman

Gamblers will always tell you about the money they won – not the money they lose. Fisherman are the same - you hear about the fish they catch-not the ones that never make it to the deck.

I lost a big Bluefin last week. Came to color-the swell was too big and the line was slack for less than a second, and the fish came unbuttoned.

Just my personal opinion, I feel that the Bluefin change their habits every single year. They are so much smarter.

The way you use a flat fall, the way you present the bait. Last few trips you had to find the breezers or the foamers with out the terns showing you the way. You need professional binoculars to get the job done-and when you find the fish-you need to hustle to get that bait, kite, balloon out before they go down.

It's an exercise in patience. Thank goodness I have Jan Howard as my idol. She has caught 23 tuna over 200 pounds. I've watched her fish-she stays calm and focused.

While I was trying my best not to lose this 230 lb. beast, Brandon was right next to me-making sure I did not go overboard and also giving me words of support.

I was also thinking to myself as I was panting heavily to get that fish on the deck - what would Jan Howard do?

I was then able to stay calm and focused-just like my friend Jan does and I got that fish.

Bluefin-I hope you are around next year. Brandon you are the best and Jan, thank you for your friendship.

Cathy Needleman with her 230lb tuna caught on a dead flying fish. It was a tough fish-took an hour to bring in.

MAN VS BASS

FISHING THE FREEDOM

By Sophia Huynh

On July 21st, Kevin Boyle, Allison Durand and I drove down to 22nd Street Landing to go on a 2 day 976-tuna.com fishing trip on the Freedom. I hadn't fished the Freedom in a few years and didn't know what to expect. Allison and I planned out alternate meals and snacks just in case and of course forgot all of the cold stuff in my refrigerator at home. Luckily, we were in for a big surprise.

The owners of the Freedom are Jeff Jessop, Mark Pisano, and John Woodrum. The boat captains are Jeff Jessop and Dave Caudle. This trip Jeff was our captain, the second was Mark Pisano (son), crew was Trevor and Blair and Chef Shawn.

When we stepped aboard the boat we were greeted by friendly crew who helped grabbed our rods and tackle boxes. The deck of the boat was so clean and shiny and everything looked redone. We stowed our gear away and went to our assigned bunks. To my surprise the bunkroom had been redone and was so much brighter and felt open. They didn't change the layout but it got a great facelift! We then went up to the galley and my mouth dropped. I felt like I was on a mini Independence! If you don't know Mark is part owner of the Independence based in San Diego and if you have a chance, you must do a trip on it. The Freedom now has the long range feel to their heads and galley. The heads are clean and spacious with large showers. The galley benches have all been redone and beautiful artwork by Abachar on the walls. It really is super!

Since it was a 976-tuna trip, the chartermaster Earl the Pearl likes the trips to be fun and keep people fishing. So we went to San Nicholas Island and had awesome rock fishing. We got giant sheepshead, lingcod, reds and chuckleheads. Captain Jeff was great, he kept us moving from spot to spot, kept us on the fish the whole day.

That night after a delicious dinner from Chef Shawn, we made the move to Santa Barbara Island. We were lucky with weather and were able to cruise the whole island searching for yellowtail. We landed several but had many casualties. I lost 2 that Earl handed me. One to a seal and the other line failure. It was ok though. Our friend who hadn't been fishing in 30 years got a nice yellow and his wife did too! So the trip was a success in my eyes.

We had a long ride home which gave the crew time to filet all of our catches and the group to enjoy a couple of cold ones!

Big thanks to captain Jeff and his crew! I hope to fish with them again soon!

DONATED TRIPS

Here's a new twist on donations. LARRC recently received 3 different donations of long-range fishing trips from the Royal Star, Royal Polaris and Intrepid which the club sold netting $6,300 for the benefit of its Veterans Fishing Program. Larry Brown approached the owners with an "outside the box" thinking and strategy. Larry proposed if they each gave LARRC a spot on a future trip which had a significant number of unsold spots, and the owners were sure they would not be able to sell all the spots on these trips, donating one to LARRC would result in zero lost revenue. A cool way to be philanthropic without costing any money. The boats also benefit by the additional promotion and exposure they receive by being on the LARRC website as a donor, in our Chum Line and on Bloody Decks, Facebook and other social media which Larry Brown and LARRC used to promote and sell the trips. The boat also gets a new customer who pays for all Mexican fees and permits and was encouraged to leave a 15 – 20% gratuity based on the full price of the trip as posted on the boat's schedule. Larry, Andrew Ratzky, Sophia Huynh and Mike Godfrey all pitched in to blast these opportunities out to LARRC members and the greater angling public. Each one sold in a couple of hours to a couple of days.

Sound like a win-win? The boat is happy, LARRC is happy and the lucky angler is very happy. Larry Brown says he is discussing the same opportunity with the Shogun and the Red Rooster 3.

LARRC President Mike Hartt stated, "This is a great idea and a great deal. Thanks to Larry for starting this out. I want to encourage all LARRC members to reach out to your favorite boats, resorts, hotels, casinos, etc, and solicit a donation of a trip or stay during low peak or low season, where their donation would result in zero lost revenue or out of pocket cost. Let me know whom you plan to contact so we only have one member from LARRC contacting any one operation. The board will be discussing if the club should have a Committee and Chairperson to oversee "Fund Raising" which would include programs such as this."

Larry Brown also reminds us the best way to thank our donors and sponsors is to patronize their operations. Here are some live links to get you started:
